

OUR ONLINE PACT

Child

I will share the apps and games that I use and not download anything without your permission

I will ask you before I sign up for a new app or game

I will not share personal information online such as my address, full name, school, or hobbies

I will keep my location off on apps and my accounts private while only adding people that I know

If something concerning happens, I make a mistake, or I come across something inappropriate, I will share it with you

If I am unsure about what someone is saying or asking of me, I will come to you

I will not transfer from one platform to another with someone I do not know in person

I will not accept any types of gifts from people online

Parent

I will be curious about which apps and games you partake in

When you sign up for a new app or game, I will ask you to show me how it works

I will make an effort to familiarize myself with these apps and games

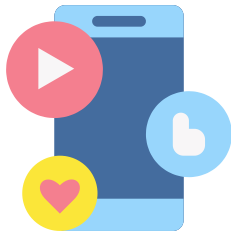

I will learn about potential risks with your games and apps so that we can decide together privacy boundaries

I will not judge you or punish you for sharing any concerns with me

I will provide you with alternative resources in the case that you do not feel comfortable coming to me first

Sign here:

Sign here:

OUR ONLINE PACT

Teen

I will not share personal information publicly, such as my school, place of work, or number

I will not share someone's photo without their consent and recognize that doing so is an invasion of their privacy

If something concerning happens or if I am worried about something, I will tell a trusted adult

I will not accept gifts of any form online

I will not transfer from one platform to another with someone I do not know in person

I will remember that livestream can be recorded and posted on other websites without my knowledge

I will remember that if someone 5+ years older than me starts talking to me, that they would be within a predatory age difference

Parent

I will be curious about which apps and games you partake in, and will actively ask you

When you sign up for a new app or game, I will ask you to show me how it works

I will share current event stories with you so that we can learn about the online world together

I will learn about potential risks with your games and apps so that I can share any concerns I have

I will not judge you or punish you for sharing any concerns with me

I will provide you with alternative resources in the case that you do not feel comfortable coming to me first

Sign here:

Sign here: